Parent Wellness Series: What You Need To Know

Hidden in Plain Sight: An Initiative to Help Parents Spot Risky Behaviors in Teens

Would you recognize the signs of teen substance use in your home? Hidden in Plain Sight is an interactive drug education program for parents. A mock teenage bedroom will display everyday items that can be indicators of drug use or risky behavior.

Our presenters will be DEA Special Agent Tim McMahon in collaboration with Detective Ken Shannon of the Madison Police Department.
