Register for all Library Programs on New Providence Community Pass!

Community Pass is the one-stop site for registration for all programs and memberships in New Providence. The same place you go to sign up for pool membership, leaf pickup, camps and sports now also hosts registration for library programs at the NPML!

Use your same existing login for NP Community Pass, then click on the library's logo to see all of our programs that require registration.

Don't have a Community Pass account yet? No problem! It's free and easy to create a new account, whether you are a NP resident or from out of town. We're excited to be able to streamline registration to better serve our community!
