

A Rainy Day in May

In May there was a rainy day,
and all the kids wanted to play,
but they could not go out that day,
because of all the rain.

“Please go away! We want the sun!
We want to go out and have fun!
We want to leap and skip and run,”
the kids said to the rain.

But that mean rain, it chose to stay.
The kids did not go out that day.
They stayed inside, it’s sad to say,
on that rainy May day.

How did the kids feel on the rainy day?
