Subject: NPBS Drama is proud to present You Can't Take It With You

The New Providence High School Drama Department is proud to present the fall play You Can't Take It With You! Join the audience for three performances on Friday, November 18th at 7pm and Saturday, November 19th at 2pm and 7pm. Tickets are now on sale and can be purchased via the district website or at the door.

One of the most popular and successful plays of modern times, You Can't Take It With You is Kaufman and Hart's hilarious, delightful portrait of the charmingly eccentric Vanderhoff family, who live life to the fullest and prove that success is not always measured in dollars and cents! This comedy classic is one of the most produced plays of all time, with a large cast of endearing, quirky characters.

The play won the 1937 Pulitzer Prize for Drama, and was adapted for the screen in 1938, which won the Academy Award for Best Picture and Best Director. Audiences have loved this story from the start, not just for the endearing characters, but just as much for its inspiring message.

The NPBS production is under the direction of Mr. Craig Duke. Over forty NPBS students are involved in the production including cast members, student stage managers, stage and technical crew. You won't want to miss it!
