Dear Students, Staff, and Parents,

Good afternoon. Congratulations on an unprecedented first week of school! I can't thank each of you enough for your commitment, preparedness, and cooperation with all of the new guidelines. I am very proud of our school community and feel honored to work with such an outstanding group of people. Our next step is to remain healthy. Please continue to be vigilant with wearing your masks and staying six feet apart while on campus. In addition, we ask that you remain responsible with your busy lives outside of school so that we remain healthy as a school community. It is easy for all of us to become more relaxed with our practices as this pandemic continues, but if we remind ourselves and others around us of the importance of our protocols, we will better ensure our health and safety at school.

Thank you again for all of your support and cooperation. Have a wonderful weekend!

Dr. David Miceli
Superintendent of Schools
