Plants are _______ which means they _________ from sunlight.

_______ and _______ are also required for photosynthesis to take place.

The location of the chloroplast where the light dependent reaction takes place is called ________________.

What are the products of this reaction________________________________________there are 3?

Light independent reaction – The Calvin Cycle -

Takes place in the __________________________ of the chloroplast. Where is this located________________________?

What are the products of the light independent reaction ____________________________?